

Dear students and alumni

Date: 26th June 2015

Greetings!

This is to inform you all that College is preparing a comprehensive record of achievements of its students and alumni for its reference. The idea is to get connected to all its students and alumni for a meaningful dialogue. It is requested that you provide certain information that will help in this process

College will make a databank of all the alumni and would like to have your active participation in growth process of your College.

The College is looking forward for your active cooperation.
